HOUSE RESOLUTION HELD UP BY SENATE

Lodge Demands Atonement For Tampico Insults and Murdered Americans.

CHAMBER IS PACKED.

Upper Body of Congress Will Uphold Hands of President in His Dealings With Mexican Situation.

Washington D. C., April 21.—It will probable be midnight before the Senate takes a vote on the Mexican resolution.

Washington, April 21.—The Senate of the United States late this afternoon is expected to pass the resolution amended in the foreign relations committee late last night, approved at midnight by advisers of the President and today indorsed by the President himself. Debate on the strength of the declarations in the resolution to be passed by the Senate delayed the vote.

The resolution "justifies" the President in using the armed forces of the United States to enforce his demand for unequivocal amends for affronts and indignities committed against the United States in Mexico, and disclaims any hostility to the Mexican people, or any purpose to make war on them.

This substitute amendment is acceptable to the House and will be promptly passed when submitted for its consideration.

Today the Senate has been listening to partisan debate, the democratic side, led by Senator Shively, acting chairman of the foreign relations committee, urging the adoption of this resolution as of paramount importance; while the republican side, led by Senator Lodge, is arguing for a broader resolution, introduced last night by Senator Lodge.

The following, it is believed, will be the text of the resolution as amended by the Senate:

"Whereas, in view of the facts presented by the President of the United States in his address delivered to the Congress at joint session on the 20th day of April, 1914, with regard to certain affronts and indignities committed against the United States in Mexico.

"Resolved, That the President is justified in the employment of the armed forces of the United States to enforce his demands for unequivocal amends for affronts and indignities committed against the United States.

"Be it further resolved, that the United States disclaims any hostility to the Mexican people, or any purpose to make war on them."

Washington, April 21.—Following a spectacular midnight session, ending in a deadlock over the form of the "war" resolution against Mexico, the Senate today was the battleground in the legislative course to back up President Wilson. Passage of a compromise joint resolution, after tedious parliamentary wrangling and acrimonious debate, was the prospect when Congressmen assembled at the Capital today.

Before adjournment tonight, it was certain that some form of a resolution would pass both houses of Congress and be in the President's hands giving him unlimited power to use the entire armed forcse of the nation in Mexico. The President must sign the joint resolution before it becomes a law.

Lengthy debate and mass of red tape to be unraveled were the obstacles in Congress which promised to postpone agreement, probably until sundown and possibly into the night.

At noon the Senate met and jumped into its task. The opening skirmish was upon the substitute preamble of Senator Lodge for the "war" resolution. Lodge proposed instead of singling out General Huerta for attack alone as the basis for the use of the army and navy in Mexico, that all outrages in Mexico and lack of government there could be cited as the ground for hostile demonstration.

The Lodge substitute appeared to be doomed for defeat.

You May Need Hospital Care

Provide for the time that you may be sick by Helping Now to Build a New Hospital.

Speedy action on the part of the United States in dealing with Huerta is imperative.

Just after the adjournment of the cabinet session this morning, it was officially announced that the State Department has been notified that a shipload of field artillery and ammunition, consigned to Huerta, is nearing Vera Cruz, and is to be loaded and sent inland as early as railroad conditions will permit.

It is the purpose of this government to immediately capture Vera Cruz and appropriate the arms and ammunition, the moment it is put ashore.

The munitions of war now being rushed to Vera Cruz for the federal army are aboard a German steamer. While in the absence of an actual state of warfare, there is no intention of seizing the vessel, it is purposed seizing the cargo the moment it is landed. The origin of the consignment is carefully guarded by the administration. Ostensibly it was sent to Huerta by a German manufacturer, but this is not positively known.

The Mexican situation was almost the entire subject of discussion at today's cabinet meeting. The members of the cabinet had used their individual influence to hurry action from Congress and the President believes the resolution over which the Senate wrangled last night, will reach him this afternoon. It has been decided by the administration that it will accept the resolution reported by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee just previous to adjournment shortly after midnight as a substitute for that passed by the House. The House leaders will be asked to agree to it when it comes to the conference.

OPINIONS ABROAD.

London Standard Says Intervention Should be Hailed With Satisfaction by Europeans.

London, April 21.—Mexico overshadows all other matters in public interest here. Throughout the British Isles local and Imperial politics, although of great importance, had to give way to what has been considered here for a long time the inevitable intervention by the United States to rstore order in Mexico.

Paris, April 21.—The evening newspapers of Paris take very little note of the situation between Mexico and the United States.

SAYS HE DROWNED BABY.

Student And Girl to be Arraigned on Infanticide Charge.

Spartansburg, S. C., April 21.—Charged with the murder of a two months' old baby, Clyde C. Clement, recently a student in a preparatory school here, and Miss Laura F. Pendelton will appear in the Court of General Sessions for trial.

The young woman, in an alleged confession made public by Solicitor Albert E. Hill, charges that Clement dropped the baby from a bridge into a creek here on the night of January 30, this year. She is represented as saying that she unwillingly consented to the drowning only after Clement had threatened to abandon her if she did not agree to the death, and agreed to marry her if she acquiesced.

According to the reputed confession, Miss Pendleton pleaded with her lover the whole night previous to the killing, asking him to let the child live, and, if he would not do that, to drown her also.

The child is said to have been born in the Presbyterian Hospital at Charlotte, N. C., where it was known as Virginia Caldwell. A man giving his name as Caldwell and representing himself as the husband of the mother is said to have settled the hospital bill.

Miss Pendleton's home is in Durham, N. C. Clement is the son of Robert C. Clement, a prominent merchant and planter.

MOTOR BOAT CLUB OPENS CARNIVAL

Elks' Auditorium Decorated For The Festive Occasion.

TO RUN TEN DAYS.

Special Features Provided For Every Evening—Dancing and Music—Pictures on the Program.

Surrounded by painted representations of scenes in foreign lands and beneath festoons of gaily colored lights reflecting the national colors, in an atmosphere that was distinctively oriental, crowds gathered last night to witness the opening of the carnival of the Alexandria Motor Boat Club.

The success of the first night was sufficient to the hearts of the committees who have been working for months to bring success to an enterprise which will help pay for their attractive club house on the Potomac.

Alexandria, which is famous for the attractive manner in which its bazars and entertainments of a similar character are prepared, has rarely had a more attractively decorated hall than the Elks' Auditorium is at present. While not as large or as pretentious as some of the carnivals which have been given previously, the details have been given more attention nad the scenic effects are on a more elaborate scale than those of the past.

At the left of the hall on entering is the flower booth from which is dispensed soft drinks of all kinds. Next in line is the Old Dutch Village with a choice assortment of groceries and food supplies. Adjoining is a representation of the Motor Boat Club House with motor boat accessories of all description. At the end of the left is the Turkish booth where candies are dispensed. The stage has been turned into a representation of the north pole and surrounded by icebergs and beneath hugh icicles refreshments are served.

On the west side of the hall there is the Japanese booth with a beautiful selection of fancy goods, the Roman booth, with household goods on display, and the Egyptian booth, where smoking material is to be had. All of the attendants of the various booths wear costumes that are in accordance with the countries represented.

In the center of the hall is the handosme motor boat which will be awarded to some person during the carnival.

splendid program has been arranged for each night's entertainment. Motion pictures are shown from 8 to 9:30 o'clock and there is dancing from 9:30 to 11:30 o'clock.

WOMAN'S HEAD SPLIT OPEN.

Man Accused of Crime Angry Because Supper Was Late.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 21.—Angered because his supper was not ready when he returned from work last evening, John Henry Jackson, of Lombard street, west of 17th, is said to have picked up a hatchet and split open the skull of Mary Davis who was employed as a housekeeper. She is believed to be dying in the Polyclinic Hospital, Jackson was arrested and locked up in the 19th street police station.

GREATEST BATTLE OF WAR ON.

Fighting Continues After Three Days, With Rebel Reinforcements Rushing to the Front.

Matamoras, Mex., April 21.—One of the greatest battles of the war is being fought at Monterey. On the Federal side about 6,000 troops are engaged, and the number of rebels is said to be equally as large, with reinforcements coming from the vicinity of Torreon. Fighting began Saturday and has continued ever since with slight interruptions. The rebels commanded by Gen. Pablo Gonzales, fought throughout the first line of outposts and entrenchments of Federals and gained the edge of the manufacturing district, three miles from town.

Brigadier-General Wilfrido Massieu is in command of the government troops since the last attack of the rebels against Monterey. The authorities there have made elaborate plans for defense. They have all the vulnerable points about the city fenced in with double and triple rows of barbed wire fencing, and this wire has been connected with the Monterey electric lighting plant so that it may be charged with a powerful current on a moment's notice.

Many fortifictions have been thrown up around the city, and on the high hill at Obispado. Not only are there earthworks, but eight heavy cannons have been placed and these guns command all the approaches to the city. Other commanding points likewise have been fortified by the Federals, under the direction of General Massieu, and special attention paid to the town of Topochico, where the rebels entered on their last attack.

REBEL LEADERS MEET.

Generals Carranza And Villa Confer at Chihuahua.

Chihuahua, Mexico, April 21.—With many fateful questions dealing with the revolution and foreign affairs before them, General Venastiana Carranza and General Francisco Villa met formally here yesterday.

It was their first meeting in four years, Carranza first having met the military leader when, fresh from outlawry, he was a leader of one of Francisco I. Madero's small revolutionary bands.

The meeting had every appearance of friendliness nad Villa made a point of referring to Carranza as his chief. Lithographs bearing the likeness of the two leaders side by side appeared in store windows and citizens wore buttons, and badges similarly decorated.

Villa, accompanied by General Angeles, who is a member of the rebel cabinet, came from Torreon Sunday night for the conference. Soldiers guarded the streets from the railroad station to Carranza's palace, while crowds of onlookers cheered. Sunday night the military band, one of the best in Mexico, serenaded the distinguished visitor and his host for hours. In the parks the populace made holiday.

No official announcement of the proceedings of the conference was made except that it was harmonious. It was understood on high authority, however, that it was determined to prosecute the resolution regardless of the estrangement between Washington nad Mexico City, so long as rebel territory is not invaded or threatened.

Hundreds of messages, some congratulations and others dealing with business, military and diplomatic subjects were received.

The primary auxiliary of the Teachers' and Parents' Association wil meet at the Lee School tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

OLD DOMINION IS READY TO RESPOND

Alexandria Light Infantry Meets Last Night and Prepares for Eventualities.

WAR SPIRIT IN STATE.

Richmond, Norfolk, Petersburg and Other Places in the Commonwealth Ready to Answer Call for Service.

Alexandria's only military company, the Alexandria Light Infantry, officially known as Company G, First Regiment Virginia Volunteers is prepared to start for a mobilization camp within twenty-four hours after their services are called out by the governor of the state in case they are needed for the Mexican war.

An enthusiastic meeting of the company was held last night at the armory on Prince street when the soldiers were put through a rigorous drill of service conditions.

There was present every member of the company who is located in the city, and a large crowd of spectators gathered to see the boys go through their manouvers.

Arrangements were made to recruit the company up to its full strength. The armory will be kept open every evening this week and a recruiting officer will be there to secure enlistments.

Richmond, April 21.—Virginia's entire military establishment is ready to move forward at the very shortest notice, should there be a call for men to go to the front in the Mexican embroglio.

Several months ago, when the disturbances began to develop in Mexico, arrangements were made by the Adjutant General for a camp for mobilization of the troops, and that arrangement holds at this time. It is understood that the State Fair Grounds, with every facility for camp purposes, will be utilized.

The excitement and possibility of war is being discussed on all sides.

The entire military force of the State is in excellent shape at this time. The equipment is in the best possible condition and is of the latest make. The uniforms are of the regulation pattern and are kept ready for immediate use. The stores are in fine condition, and the facilities for handling supplies for the men and ammunition are about as near perfect as they can be at any time.

While some of the commands are not up to the maximum at this time, chances are that within two weeks at the very latest, according to Adjutant General Sale, the commands could and would be recruited to the maximum.

No orders of any sort have been received so far, and until there is an order the commands will not be called to assemble and prepare for service. The fact that forty-eight hours would suffice to bring every command to the city, or to any point that might be chosen for mobilization, makes the formal issuance of orders perfunctory, as the men are about ready for duty now.

Mobilization plans, which were worked out many months ago, differ little from those of '98. All Virginia troops, in time of need, will be rushed to this city and will begin drilling in field tactics. A detail from each company will be left at home to gather recruits, as it is necessary to bring all companies up to the war footing of 110 enlisted men. Practically every company, however, has a reserve list of experienced men, who have agreed to enlist for actual service, and it is not expected that many days would elapse before all would be ready to go where sent.

Virginia troops, in the way of personnel and equipment, equal those of any State in the Union. Its commands are all up to the minimum, which is all that is expected in time of peace, and the arms and accoutrements are of the latest improved type. Rifles and pistols, and even the big field pieces of the artillery are identical with those used by the regulars, while the State forces fully equal the regular army in the way of uniforms and camp equipage.

Forty infantry companies, three batteries of artillery, three regimental hospitals, one field hospital, one company signal corps, and a quartermaster and commissary department comprise Virginia quota, if the governor is asked to furnish volunteers. Under the resolution passed by Congress yesterday, President Wilson may call on the militia. In event he does so, Governor Stuart will be requested to assemble his forces, and he will issue orders for the mobilization through Adjutant-General W. W. Sale.

Norfolk, Va., April 21.—The military people of Norfolk were early in conference yesterday upon the Mexican situation.

Major Chester L. Wright, Adjutant General of the First Brigade of Virginia Volunteers, stated that the Virginia troops are fully equipped and prepared for any duty in the field; that while the brigade is on a peace footing, he thinks that there will be no difficulty in recruiting the brigade up to the full war strength.

He said that the officers and men are enthusiastic and all requirements of the War Departmnt would be met.

Major Wright stated that he was of the opinion that the Virginia troops are probably the best equipped of any in the National Guard. The soldiers of Norfolk, he said, feel that while war is to be deplored, they are ready to answer with enthusiasm if needed.

Lieut-Col. R. W. Salomonsky, of the Fourth Virginia, and Captain R. Baldwin Myers, commissary officer of the same regiment, who were in conference with Major Wright, stated that everythingpertaining to their command was in readiness for immediate work at the front.

Petersburg, Va., April 21.—First Lieutenant Davis, in charge of the Petersburg Grays, in the absence of Captain McCreedy, stated yesterday that the company would be in readiness on short notice for any emergency. He states that the company is above minimum, but can be recruited to full war strength in less than two days, and that Captain McCreedy could reach the city in about eight hours if necessary.

In 1847 two full companies of volunteers were sent to the Mexican war from Petersburg, one under the command of Captain R. E. Robinson and the other under Colonel F. H. Archer. The last of the Petersburg volunteers in that war died only last year.

May be Confined as Insane.

New York, April 21.—Michael P. Mahoney, who attempted to shoot Mayor Mitchell last week and wounded Corporation Counsel Frank L. Polk, was arraigned today to plead to an indictment charging him with attempted murder in the first degree.

"I don't want any lawyer," the prisoner insisted, but Judge Mulqueen assigned counsel for him, and the case was put over until tomorrow.

It is likely that Mahoney will be committed to an institution for the criminal insane.

$3750 SUBSCRIBED FOR NEW HOSPITAL

Good Progress Being Made by Committee Who Are Collecting Funds.

TWO MEETINGS HELD.

Praise For Women Who Have Been Conducting Work With Small Funds At Their Control.

Subscriptions amounting to $3,750 are announced as result of the first day's canvas for the $50,000 fund for the Alexandria Hospital and the committee is greatly encouraged at the hearty support they have received from the community at large.

The work of calling on the retail merchants of city and the formation of the Boosters' Club will be continued today.

An enthusiastic meeting of the board of lady managers and the physicians of the city was held last night at the hospital when many features of the campaign were discussed. A. D. Brockett and Julian Y. Williams appeared before the committee and explained the plans of the executive committee for the raising of the fund.

The new plans to advertise the campaign will be put into effect today. An illuminated sign, 5 x 10 feet, will be erected on the headquarters building, corner Washington and King street. A bulletin board wil lalso be placed there which will show the progress of the fund.

Reference was made yesterday to the commendable interest shown in the movement for a new hospital by a little Jewish girl, who painted a picture, raffled the same for $25.75 and added the money to the hospital fund.

Our attention today was directed to work equally as commendable on the part of two little girls who formerly resided in this city, but who now live at New Alexandria. They, too, have become enthused by the movement for a new hospital, and not having any money at their disposal, the children resolved to add their mites to the fund by gathering wild flowers in the fields near their home and selling the same in this city, the money derived from the enterprise to be turned over to the collecting committee.

The action of little folks in being anxious to have a part in this good work, small as it may be, should inspire their elders to be equally anxious to help materially in the movement

The most wonderful thing in connection with the hospital is that the brave and magnificent women who have shouldered this heavy burden for years have managed to carry on the work and make both ends meet. It can only be explained by the fact that they have not only given their time, but have, like Miss Davidson, drawn on their private pantries to supply the needs of the hospital.

It is nothing unusual for the women of Alexandria to sacrifice their time, money and pleasure to advance the good of the community. They never fail, they are always in the front ranks of charity and duty and can always be depended on. Hence, the Hospital has been kept going, and has performed well its tremendous relief work. It now becomes the duty of all who desire to help a good cause in the interest of humanity to assist these good women in their noble work.

A few dollars a month for the next year from all who can afford it will easily raise the needed money.

During the past year 620 patients have been treated at the hospital with as high as 30 and never less than nine a day, of which 114 were dispensary cases and 516 hospital patients that the care of these cases required 5,555 days nursing of which over 20 per cent were free, the daily average being 16, of which 4.3 were free.

An interesting program of moving pictures has been arranged at the Surprise Theatre for tonight. See list of films on page 2.

BITTEN BY A DOG.

Sam Meisel, of Washington, was bitten by a dog owned by Levi Bolden, colored, yesterday. The man was crossing Royal street near the corner of King, when the dog bit him. The wound was cauterized. In the police court this morning Justice Cateon fined the owner of the dog $5 for allowing the animal to run at large without being properly muzzled, and ordered the dog to be killed.

SCOTCH EVENING.

Mr. Thomas D. D. Clarke, a Native of Edinburgh, Will Tell of Scotland in Prose and Song.

Tonight's entertainment at 8 o'clock at the Young People's Building promises to be a delightful one from every point of view. Mr. Clarke's program appeals alike to the lover of historic narrative, the student of literature, and especially to those who love to hear the Scotch tongue in song. Surely the land of Robert Burns, which has such a peculiar fascination for us all, is a subject rich in interest. We cannot well afford to miss this opportunity of hearing from one of her native sons this meaning of Scotch Hotch-Poach, as he terms it.

Admission will be twenty-five cents. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the Children's Home.

Not only new this season, but with several points that feature this year's riding habit above all past models.

Previous to this season, of no matter what material, the suit was likely to become worn and shabby within a very short time from the rubbing occasioned in riding The new model is reinforced with chamois seat in the bloomers and suede at the knees, and affords ample protection to the material. They are made of the best qualities of men's materials in oxford and gray, the coat lined with a fine satin, and the bottom of the garment having wide rubber facing to protect the bottom of the coat when the horse becomes overheated.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

SCHOOL BOOK LIST.

Authorities Will Endeavor to Prevent Frequent Changes Hereafter.

Richmond, Va., April 21.—The State Board of Education met yesterday morning to begin its work of selecting text books for the public schools for a period of not less than four nor more than seven years. Committees have for some time been engaged in examining various texts submitted to them, and though their wor kis far advanced, it does not now seem probable that there will be any final adoption of books until the last session of the board.

The task of selecting textbooks is one of the most difficult that the board has ever set itself. It will be finished only after careful and exhaustive study and a close comparison of the many and varied texts submitted by the publishing companies.

No official statement of the progress of the work of selection or of the position of the board in regard to a standardized system for rural and city schools was given out yesterday, but it is generally understood that the board desires to carry out the principle of a single list logically and completely. This will mean a change of books in several instances in which different books are now used in the counties and cities. It seems probable that the same basal books will be adopted for both counties and cities in every instance. The needs of schools whose cirricula are more advanced and complex will be met by the adoption of a liberal list of supplementary books.

It is said also to be the desire of the State Board of Education to do away with the frequent changes that have been characteristic in the past. Prior to 1912 the custom prevailed of selecting books for the elementary school during one biennum and for the high schools during the succeeding biennum. In other words, the elementary books were adopted for four years in 1908, for example, and high school books in 1910. The next adoption of elementary books was due in 1912, but the State Board deliberately postponed that selection until 1914 in order to avoid the perpetual changing of books, which have proved annoying to both patrons and teachers.

It requires two years to complete an exchange of books, and when adoptions follow each other every two years there is created upon the minds of the people a feeling that books are changed every year. This is because of the fact that by the time the elementary books are exchanged, the high school adoption of a new set is due, and during the two years that must elapse before the high school exchanges are completed, the time to select elementary books comes around again. The board will bend every effort to relieve this situation, and it is probable that textbooks will be adopted for a period of seven years.

VICTIM OF FLAMMERS.

Richmond, April 21.—A lesson in "flim-flamming" Saturday afternoon proved costly to Lonnie Alexander, an aged negro farmer of Chesterfield county, when two young negroes defraud him of $59.62 by the use of a fake $1,000 bill.

Two young negro men were standing at the corner of Tenth and Hull streets, South Richmond, Thursday morning when Alexander drove by in a wagon. No. 1 asked the old man for a "lift" in the wagon while No. 2 stopped and picked up a pocketbook which lay at his feet. Examing the contents of the pocketbook, No. 2 told the old man it contained a $1,000 bill. He led the old negro to believe the money had been dropped by some one entering the Manchester National Bank, at Tenth and Hull streets.

"No one knows we have this bill," spoke up No. 2, when a short distance from the bank. "We three will whack it up. The old man "fell" for the scheme nad became interested in the sharing of the money. Here was the chance of his life, he thought. Accordingly he took his two "companions" to his home near Stop 12, Chesterfield county, where they spent the night and ate chicken at the breakfast meal Saturday morning.

No. 1 promised Alexander's wife a silk dress in payment for the night's lodging. No. 2 said as soon as he changed his bill he would give her $2. The old man, already seeing visions of his share of the $1,000" drove his friends to the city about noon.

Alexander went to the Manchester National Bank and drew out $59.62 No. 1 went to a telephone and asked his "boss" to change the $1,000 bill. The "boss" required $100 to change the bill. Meanwhile, No. 2 went away and returned with a sealed envelope, which, he informed Alexander, contained $50 of the $100 needed to change the big bill.

As an evidence of good faith, Alexander was asked to place his $59.62 in a sealed envlope. Alexander, unsuspecting, gave No. 1 his money. No. 2 excused himself while his "buddy" was making the change, saying he had to make a small purchase. No. 1 and his dear friend, No. 2, never returned with the change.

Alexander waited four long hours at Fifth and Cary streets for his two "friends" to return. When at last the truth dawned upon him, the old man went to the Third police station. South Richmond where he reported his lost.

BEGINS WORK TODAY.

Tax Commission Will Complete Organization and Make Plans.

Richmond, April 21.—The State Commission met in the Senate chamber today and entered upon the duty for which it was named—that of recommeding changes in the methods for taxation in the State.

The commission declared that it will not engage a corps of clerical help till the progress has been such as to make the engagment imperative in order to facilitate the general work of the commission. In other words, the commission will resort to the most rigid economy in order to keep well within the appropriation set apart for it.

The plans for actively beginning the work were arranged, and there will be committees to take up various phases and to make reports and to have the several classes of properties arranged and their actual value as ascertained by the commissioners determined.

Then will come a discussion as to the segregation—giving certain classes to the counties and cities and others to the State.

This will open up the way for a discussion of the general plan of taxation, and there will be hearings from persons and organizations in all parts of the State.

FIVE YEARS IN PRISON.

Woman Who Claims Nicholas Estate Convicted of Fradulent Use of Mails.

Harrisonburg, Va., April 21.—The famous Nicholas poison-will case takes a new turn as a result of the fact that Miss Ella McClendon, of Missouri has been convicted in a Federal Court and sentenced to serve a term of five years in prison on the charge of using the mails for a fradulent purpose in the effort to obtain money from the estate of a man in Nevada.

In an alleged will left by George M. Nicholas, the Rockingham farmer, who died from arsenic poisoning in August, 1912, the sum of about $75,000 is left to the McClendon woman, who claims to have befriended Nicholas several years ago after he was injured in a street car accident in St. Louis.

The four Nicholas brothers have opened fight in the courts against the alleged will, which was not made public for nearly a year after the poisoning. They contend that the will is a forgery; that their brother was never in St. Louis, and that he never knew the woman in all his life.

MILLIONS OF FISH DYING.

Fishermen and Watermen at Loss to Explain Destruction of Finny.

Newport News, Va., April 21—Fishermen and watermen here and along the shores of the James river are much puzzled by the wholesale dying of small fish, which has been going on for the past several weeks. People of this city have noticed that in places whole schools of little fish would come to the surface of the water. Some were dead, while others were slowly succumbing to some malady. Reports from the river, especially between Ferguson's Wharf, and Claremont, say that little fish have washed ashore in such numbers as to line the beach for a depth of several inches in some places. Hogs and fowls have feasted for weeks but could not begin to diminish the supply.

The fish, it is said, are young herrings and shad, but just what causes the wholesale spread of death is a mystery. Some believe that it may be due to the refuse dumped in the river by the chemical factories near Richmond which has been brought further down the James than usual by the heavy rains of the past few months. It is feared that the dying off of so many young may seriously affect the fishing industry this summer and next.

THE COUNTRY'S CALL TO ARMS.

Notwithstanding the fact that a corporal's guard of Democratic Congressmen and about the same number of republicans are not disposed to sanction President Wilson's movement in the Mexican situation, the great bulk of the people of the United States have been quick to affirm all he has done in the matter, and his message yesterday to Congress is heartily endorsed. When the executive of the nation has found it necessary to act in former years he has met opposition. The Louisiana purchase was antagonized, as was the first war with Mexico and the unavoidable conflict with Spain in recent years, and President Wilson is having his experience with dissenters.

The best evidence of the fact that, although scars may still be in evidence as the result of contentions in other days, the sores have responded to treatment and become effectually healed, and the hearty response from Maine to the Rio Grande and from ocean to ocean which has greeted President Wilson in his action in resenting the insolence of an adventurer and pretender now de facto president of Mexico shows the country is united and solid as Gibraltar.

Not only have military organizations throughout the country been rapidly recruited, but fraternal organizations have been animated with patriotism, and they are offering their services to their country.

Naturalized natives of other nations are rallying to the support of the stars and stripes, asserting their eagerness to fight for the flag of their adopted country. A number of Greeks, who are proud to be numbered among the subjects of the United States, yesterday appeared at a recruiting station in Washington and made application for places in the ranks of the United States forces The martial blood of their progenitors who fought at Thermopylae was manifested by their eagerness to enlist.

While for years the people of the United States have been irritated by chronic affronts offered this country by disturbers of the peace in Mexico, so much so that at times it was thought the United States should take the bull by the horns and teach political freebooters a lesson which would prove lasting—to the effect that such disgraceful proceedings as have been carried on by them and their followers would not be tolerated any longer on the North American Continent.

So long, however, as American interests were not jeopardied and no wanton insult was perpetrated, those guiding the destinies of the United States have preferred to wait until the fire of civil discord burned out and stable government would follow reigns of bloodshed.

The Tampico incident was the most glaring indignity cast upon the stars and stripes, and to have accepted "regrets" only from the individual calling himself the President of Mexico would have paved the way for more high-handed acts upon the part of the usurper.

President Wilson in his message to Congress yesterday called attention to the fact that Mexico seemingly went out of her way to manifest contempt for the United States, as this country has persistently refused to recognize the claims of a man who waded through blood to reach the position he now holds and whose reign is destined to be short-lived.

SENATE DEFER ACTION.

Plans for Prosecuting War Completed at Conference Last Night.

Washington, April 21.—Within a few hours the United States government will probably have taken possession of the Mexican custom houses at Tampico and Vera Cruz.

Detailed plans for landing of marines at these two important coast towns were completed at a conference at the White House between President Wilson, Secretaries Bryan, Garrison and Daniels, Major-General Wood and Rear-Admirals Fiske and Blue, and John Lind.

No orders to the army and navy would be issued last night," was the announcement made after the conference, further steps, temporarily being deferred until Congress acts on the joint resolution approving the President's purpose of using the armed forces of the United States to enforce its demands against General Huerta growing out of the arrest at Tampico of American bluejackets.

The resolution passed the House last night by a vote of 337 to 37 after a spirited debate. For several hours it was considered by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, with prospects of an all night session of the Senate or a recess until early today. The House adjourned until 10 o'clock today and President Wilson worn out by the day's work, retired after hearing that the House had adopted the resolution.

Opposition had developed in the Senate to such an extent to singling out Huerta in the resolution that it became practically certain that objections would postpone final action until Wednesday.

A Democratic member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said he believed no resolution would be favorably reported which individualized Huerta, but that the measure probably would be broadened to include the "de facto Government at Mexico City."

With the President's appeal to Congress for "advice and cooperation" in the Mexican crisis approved by the House, with all the preparations to inaugurate active an campaign to exact reparation for insults to the American flag completed and with the land and naval forces prepared to inaugurate a peaceful blockade, the Administration's plan for further action against Mexico marked time last night pending the passage in the Senate of the resolution by Congress authorizing President Wilson to use the army and navy as he saw fit.

After an hour and a half conference at the White House both Secretary Daniels and Secretary Garrison announced that no orders would be issued to Admiral Badger's fleet or to the army.

What Cures Eczema?

We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make our answer public. After careful investigations we have found that a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, as compounded in D. D. D. Prescription, can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our patrons, friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it—and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves unhesitatingly recommend D. D. D. Prescription.
Drop into our store today, just to talk over the merits of this wonderful Prescription.

NEAR DEATH BY SMOTHERING

But Husband, With Aid of Cardui, Effects Her Deliverance.

Draper, N C.—Mrs. Helen Dalton, of this place, says: "I suffered for years with pains in my left side, and would often almost smother to death.
Medicines patched me up for awhile but then I would get worse again. Finally, my husband decided he wanted me to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, so he bought me a bottle and I began using it. It did me more good than all the medicines I had taken.
I have induced many of my friends to try Cardui, and they all say they have been benefited by its use. There never has been, and never will be, a medicine to compare with Cardui. I believe it is a good medicine for all womanly troubles."
For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings and building weak women up to health and strength.
If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It should surely help you, as it has a million others.

MEMORIAL.

At a meeting of the congregation of the First Baptist Church, of Alexandria, a committee consisting of James R. Mansfield, Robert H. Cox, and C. E. Nicol, was appointed to prepare a brief memorial of the life and labors of Adam Martin, Senior Deacon of this Church, and resolutions concerning his lamented death.
In fulfillment of that duty the committee reports the following:

Memorial.

Adam Martin was born on March 5th, 1829, in Jedburgh, Scotland, that city being distant about twenty miles from Edinburgh, a much larger and more famous city. He was of Scotch Presbyterian stock, his father being an elder in the Presbyterian church of Jedburgh, but he never joined that church. In his young manhood he left his native land, and came to the United States. That was in the year 1852, —he then being twenty-three years of age. He located in Philadelphia, where he carried on the business of merchant tailoring for two years,—he having learned the tailor's trades in Scotland. After a residence of two years in Philadelphia he removed to Mullica Hill, Glouchester county, New Jersey, where he resided some four years. During his residence at Mullica Hill, he met Miss Ann Bunning, formerly of England, but then living at Mullica Hill. Miss Bunning had joined the Baptist Church in England, and removed to America when about sixteen years of age. Mr. Martin and Miss Bunning were married on September 25th, 1855, in Philadelphia, by Rev. Dr. Levy, a Baptist minister. The marriage proved to be ideal. From the day of their marriage to the day when Mr. Martin fell on sleep, peace, love, mutual sympathy and blessings blessed that home. Within its sacred precincts reigned that peace and joy, which is a foretaste of heaven. What a contrast is that sweet and lovely home life, to the anxieties, burdens and suspicions of modern life, in many homes where elegance and splendor abound, but the joy of the Christian life is absent? If the ideal, Christian life of the Martin home could be realized in every household in this vast land, the problems which burden and threaten society, would vanish.
When Mr. Martin was married he was a member of no church. However, in 1856, he was converted and united with the Baptist Church at Mullica Hill, New Jersey. In 1859, Mr. Martin moved from New Jersey to Virginia. He came with the three Snowden brothers, all of whom were Quakers, and settled near Mount Vernon in Fairfax county, where he engaged in farming. He was fond of birds, flowers and the pleasures of country life. He lived in Fairfax county at different places, over forty years. In 1900 he moved to Alexandria, where he resided, until his death.
Mr Martin came to Virginia in 1859, unconscious that the clouds of the Civil War would soon darken this section. During that period Mr. Martin ministered to the sick and dying. After working in the fields all day he would often at night carry the glad tidings of Gospel to some sick or dying person in his neighborhood. When the churches of the country were closed during the war, he carried on Sunday school every Sunday morning at his home, and conducted prayer meeting there every Sunday night.
In 1863, during the pastorate of Dr. C. C. Bitting, Mr. Martin became a member of the First Baptist Church of Alexandria, where his membership remained, until he went to his Heavenly reward. About twenty years ago he became a deacon in this church, and at the time of his death was the senior deacon, in point of years in service. In the discharge of his duties, as deacon he was most kind, considerate and courteous. No member, however humble, would ever hesitate to unfold his views and wishes to him, confident that he would receive a sympathetic hearing, and that his wish could be gratified, if proper and within his power.
He was a loyal friend and supporter of his pastor His kindly sympathy and interest in the different pastors, who served this church during his membership was to them an inspiration and blessing. In counsel, as a deacon he was wise, in the discharge of every duty, active in matters not involving principle, yielding and accommodating, in his views, but in matters involving the essentials of faith and doctrine, as understood and taught by the Baptists, he was immovable.
His life was an inspiration, and blessing to this church,—not by reason of wealth,—not by reason of eloquence,—not by reason of profound learning,—not by reason of any other quality that adorns human character, but by the reason of his simple, child-like faith in his Divine Lord and Master of whom he had caught a large and continuing vision,—a vision that made his countenance to shine,—a vision that made his walk straight and unerring in the path of right, a vision that made the journey, as it grew to the end, seem glorious and luminous with a light more than earthly, for it lead to the presence of his Divine Lord and Master, whom he had loved and served. May the fragrance and memory of that sweet, gentle, beautiful, Christian life forever remain an inspiration and blessing to this Church!
Mr. Martin left surviving him his faithful wife, crushed with sorrow, and yet sustained with an unfaltering trust, that when the night is past, she will be reunited with him, in the morning, in the presence of her and his Saviour.
Mr. Martin also left surviving him nine children, twenty-two grandchildren and ten great grandchildren. Among all his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren and sons-in-law, he said there was not a black sheep. His children are William L. and Thomas B. Martin, of Alexandria; Mrs. Elizabeth Auld, Washington; Mrs. J. T. Shaw and Mrs. Conrad P. Heine, Alexandria county; Mrs. Archie Carter and Mrs. D. A. Richmond, Lincolnia, Fairfax County; Mrs Robert Birkmire, Philadelphia, and Mrs. Chas. Sims, Norfolk, Va.
An unique and remarkable circumstance in the family history of Mr. Martin, is the fact that his own death, is the first death in his family, for over fifty-eight years, excepting two grandchildren, who died in infancy.
Mr. Martin died at his home, No. 217 North St. Asaph street, Alexandria, on March 30th, 1914, surrounded by his family. At the time of his death he was in his 86th year. Until his last sickness, which lasted about four months prior to his death, he had enjoyed good health. During his last sickness he suffered considerably, and often said he would welcome the end. However, he never murmured, and was patient in his suffering. Fear of death was entirely absent. His faith in a glorious resurrection never grew dim nor failed. He reckoned the day of the Christian's death a day of rejoicing and crowning.
Full of honors and years, truly a leader in Israel hath fallen. His venerable, kindly countenance has vanished, that soft voice has been hushed, that manly form will no longer inspire us, but from his home in Heaven, we believe that his heart will still be with this church, will rejoice in her triumphs and lament over her short comings, for he loved this Church and this people, and love is immortal.

HUERTA'S SIDE OF CASE.

Dictator Insists Ample Reparation for Tampico Incident Was Made.

Mexico City, April 21.—The Mexican capital awaited with intense interest yesterday the next word from Washington in reply to the refusal of Provisional President Huerta to comply with the demand of the United States.
All the morning papers published a lengthy statement by the Mexican Foreign Minister, Senor Portillory Rojas, outlining the reasons for the position General Huerta had taken, namely, that the American flag was not flying on the boat when the bulejackets were arrested on shore at Tampico; that, therefore, the flag had not been insulted, and that compliance with the demand for unconditional salute would be humiliating to Mexico.
This statement was followed by a statement from President Huerta advising Mexicans to refrain from demonstrations which might embarras possible future negotiations.
News of the deadlock as a complete surprise to the large majority of Mexicans, as the existence of a diplomatic controversy had been kept out of the newspapers. Everywhere Mexican citizens eagerly read and earnestly discussed the statement from the Mexican Foreign Minister published in the morning newspapers. They stood in groups on the streets or congregated in the cafes, but no where did they give any evidence of ill-feeling toward Americans with whom they came in contact.
The newspapers restricted themselves to very brief comment on the statements given out by the Foreign Minister.
Provisional President Huerta displayed comparative indifference to the crisis and passed several hours Sunday evening listening to the military band playing in Chapultepec Park. Several hundred American residents spent the evening at the American Club, where a dinner and entertainment were given.

Twenty-five Greek-Americans yesterday made application to enlist as volunteers in the service of the United States should war be declared against Mexico. All the men are veterans of the recent Balkan war.

Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, had placed in the Senate record yesterday a letter from Fairfax Harrison, president of the Southern Railway, asking in behalf of the railroad, an opportunity to refute recent charges by E. L. Dulaney, in a letter to Senator Tillman, that the Southern Railway discriminated against Southern cities in coal rates. Senator Tillman, in a letter to President Harrison, also made public, declared that the matter would be brought to the attention of the Naval Affairs Committee on April 23.

Senator Algara, Charge of the Mexican Embassy in Washington, was informed last night by a telegram from the Mexican vice-consul at Indianapolis that 11 Mexican students at the University of Notre Dame, Ind., were thrown into the river there and badly treated by American students in the institution. The consul informed the Charge that he would take the matter up with the president of the university. Mr. Algara said he would wait to hear further from the affair before sending any word to his government. As there are many Mexicans in various institutions of learning throughout the country, he fears, he said, that other such outbreaks of national feeling may occur.

Don't Let a Cold Settle on Your Lungs

Many cases of Lung Trouble can be traced directly to a severe cold which has been neglected, and which, as a result, has affected the lungs. If you have a persistent cough or a cold, take warning before it is too late. Eckman's Alterative is most beneficial in such cases and has been the means of completely restoring to health many persons who had serious lung trouble. Read of this case:—

Pleasantville, N. J.

"Gentlemen: During the winter of 1911 I contracted a severe cold, which settled on my lungs. The doctor pronounced it lung trouble. I tried nearly every preparation without any result and kept getting worse. Eckman's Alterative was recommended to me and I commenced using it as a last resort. The first bottle seemed to give no relief; in fact, I seemed to feel worse, but I kept on using the medicine and found out the first bottle had really started me on the road to recovery by loosening the mucus and making me expectorate freely. After using the medicine for some time my cough ceased, I gained flesh and today I am a well man."

(Signed) GEO. M. BATES.

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence For sale by all leading druggists

THIRTEEN KILLED

Desperate Battle Between Strikers and Soldiers Fought in Colorado.

Denver, Colo., April 21.—Thirteen men are dead, more than two score wounded and pandemonium reigns at Ludlow, fifteen miles from Trinidad, as the result of the fourteen-hour battle waged yesterday between soldiers and striking miners.

Firing ceased at 10 o'clock except for desultory shooting. At that hour the militia had surounded a great body of miners in an arroyo near Savings canon.

Last night strikers were rushing from Trinidad, Walsenburg and other neighboring camps to aid their fellows and it is predicted that by daylight the fiercest labor battle in the history of the state will be begun. Additional militiamen also are being hurried to the scene. The dead include one soldier, eleven strikers and one noncombatant.

The big tent colony was destroyed completely by fire. The hundreds of women and children are being cared for by frantic citizens. General Louis Tikas, strike leader, is among the dead.
